The property is completely unique within this sought after community, with a south to west corner orientation and fabulous views to the surrounding golf course, mountains and partial views to the sea. Upon entering the property there is a large entrance hall leading to a spacious and naturally bright open plan living and dining area, with direct access to a very private south westerly facing terrace offering fabulous views to the La Quinta golf course and the mountains. To the left of the entrance hall is a large modern design kitchen which could potentially be opened up to flow directly into the lounge. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, one of which is en suite. Both bedrooms have fitted wardrobes and open onto a terrace again with south west facing golf, mountain and partial sea views. A further spiral staircase takes you to the roof terrace with panoramic breathtaking views of La Quinta golf, La Concha and the coast.
