Overview: A prestigious and boutique home furnishings business located in the commercial center of Puerto Banus. This fully functioning and profitable business is offered as a freehold going concern, a turn key business to take over and earn from day one. The premises were renovated two years ago and the location ensures that there is much passing traffic and already in place is a loyal customer base and supplier network. There is customer parking, trusted and knowledgeable staff can be retained, full stock is included in the price which is currently valued at 300,000 euros. A genuine business opportunity and we welcome viewings from serious buyers.
