Overview: This duplex apartment is located beachside in the Las Chapas area of East Marbella, arguably one of the finest areas of the Costa del Sol. The property has been totally refurbished top to bottom and consists of, on the entrance level, the lounge-diner, fully equipped kitchen and sunny west facing terrace with open aspect overlooking the extensive gardens. Downstairs are two large double bedrooms, both with patio doors accessing to private terraces and two family bathrooms. The complex is well established and features communal pool, parking with several restaurants and small shops in the area, walking distance to public transport. Must be seen!
