Overview: Finca Villa with stables and two riding arenas for sale near Mijas, Costa del Sol! This lovely property lies close to the town and yet is surrounded by the countryside near Mijas! On the 10,000 m² (2.5 acres) plot is the two story family home (built in 2002) with 300 m² (3,300 sq f) of living space. The accommodation includes a very large lounge with open log fire place, a well-equipped and spacious kitchen with dining corner, four double bedrooms which share two bathrooms and a beautiful large covered terrace. In the garden with its many fruit trees stands a wooden guest cottage. For the horses there is a barn with 10 boxes plus tack room and feed storage. There are also two riding arenas for working the horses. A generous pool provides welcome opportunity for cooling down and relaxation and an out-door barbecue corner invites owner and guests to delicious al fresco dining. The property is connected to mains water and electricity. The water for the irrigation of the garden and the trees comes from a well on the property. This property offers pleasant country life and yet is close to all the amenities such as golf courses, the horse race track, unlimited sports and leisure facilities and excellent shopping. It is situated in an area called Entrerrios so there is beautiful landscape for long rides! The wide and golden beaches are just 8 km away. If you love horses, the sea and beautiful country this may be the property of your dreams!
