Overview: A stunning example of a modern contemporary designed villa in one of the best areas, La Quinta. Designe by the renowned architect Carlos Lams the property is situated next to the famous Westin Golf & Country Club, this villa has incredible panoramic views of La Concha mountain and all over Nueva Andalucia. Distributed over three floors and on a large plot, this property has bags of space for a family and the most amazing cinema room on the lower ground level. Comprising 5 bedrooms over the three floors all with en-suite and a large open planned living dining and kitchen area, all finished with Italian marble and calcutta stonework. The property has been lowered to coincide with the adjustment in the market presently and now represents incredible value for money. If you are looking for a villa in this area then you will want to make sure you see this.
